

End of Tenancy Cleaning

In most tenancy agreements, the tenant is responsible for the end of tenancy cleaning. However, sometimes in the rush of things or in the event of illness or sadly a death, this is not always possible.

We provide end of tenancy deep cleaning, clearance and remedial work. However, we're not just your standard end of tenancy cleaning company. We're a Not For Profit Social Enterprise specialising in decluttering the homes of vulnerable people. We genuinely care about every job and have created countless employment and training opportunities for young people in the process.

Who We Help

View all

Landlords

Property owners self-managing a tenancy or property portfolio who need a trusted end of tenancy cleaning service.

Tenants

Those coming to the end of their tenancy who need to recover their deposit by returning the property in a clean condition.

Social Housing

Local housing providers who need to return a property to a clean and tidy state within a short timeframe.

Family living away

Relatives who are unable to clear and clean the rental home of a loved one who has sadly passed away.

Learn more here

Our Other Services

View all

Decluttering

Motivating yourself or a loved one to make decisions about possessions can be difficult, especially when a home has become overwhelmingly muddled.

House Clearance

A house clearance can be a huge task, especially for people living alone who may have a lifetime's worth of possessions or for families who have just lost someone.

Ready to start?

Learn more here

Helpful links

Our Process

Our Helpful Information Page

All of our Social Media Platforms

Lofty Heights

Brightspace, 160 Hadleigh Road, Ipswich
United Kingdom

You received this email because you signed up on our website.

Unsubscribe
Update preferences

