House Clearance

A house clearance can be a huge task, especially for people living alone who may have a lifetime's worth of possessions or for families who have just lost someone.

It can be quite an overwhelming task, especially when a home has become muddled or cluttered. That's where Lofty Heights CIC can help. Our house clearance service offers an ordered and dignified way of sorting and clearing belongings and paperwork while taking care of the possessions to be kept.

Our other Services

Garden Clearance

For some people, tending to a garden is just too much, and when left, the outside space can become hazardous, inaccessible, and even a calling card for criminals.

End of Tenancy Cleaning

In most tenancy agreements, the tenant is responsible for the end of tenancy cleaning. However, sometimes in the rush of things or in the event of illness or sadly a death, this is not always possible.

Our Process

Our team are skilled in giving properties a deep, thorough clean. Our cleaning can also include infection control and the decluttering of homes that have reached the end of their tenancy. Likewise, our team is also able to carry out small remedial DIY jobs.

Our website outlines a step by step guide to our process. To learn more Click here
